

Annual Notification of Student Rights Under FERPA

Redwood State University - Arcadia Falls, California

The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) gives students certain rights with respect to their education records. These rights include:

1. The right to inspect and review education records within 45 days of a request.
2. The right to request amendment of records the student believes are inaccurate.
3. The right to provide written consent before the university discloses personally identifiable information, except to the extent FERPA authorizes disclosure without consent.
4. The right to file a complaint with the U.S. Department of Education.

Directory information

Redwood State may release name, major, dates of attendance, degrees and awards, and participation in athletics without consent. Students may restrict release by filing a request with the Office of the Registrar.
