

PACCU Commission Action Letter

Redwood State University - Arcadia Falls, California

Pacific Accrediting Commission for Colleges and Universities (PACCU)

400 Harbor Plaza, Suite 900, Westmere, CA

July 9, 2021

Elena Vasquez-Hart, Ph.D., President, Redwood State University

Commission action

At its June 2021 meeting, the Commission reaffirmed the accreditation of Redwood State University for a period of ten years, following the Institutional Report and the spring 2021 site visit. The next reaffirmation review is scheduled for 2030-31.

Required follow-up

A Mid-Cycle Review is due in spring 2025, reporting on (1) equity gaps in graduation rates, (2) assessment of general education learning outcomes, and (3) long-term budget planning.

Commendations

The Commission commends the university for place-based research that involves undergraduates and for its support of first-generation students.
